Freitag Flagship Store Zurich

If one product carries Zurich out into the wide world, it is the Freitag bag. The original, of course, can be bought in the city near the Limmat.

The Freitag Tower is fascinating: Its industrial design, radically contrasting with its surroundings is made up of 17 used shipping containers stacked on top of each other. The shop is also an experience from the inside: Made of sturdy plastic tarpaulins, the bags are as much a part of Zurich as the lake.

Europaallee – shopping and spending time in the middle of Zurich

Europaallee, right next to Zurich's main station, is the youngest district in Zurich. A wide range of shopping, cultural and gastronomic attractions beckon visitors here.

Europaallee, which stretches from just behind Zurich's main station to Langstrasse, is a small district in itself – with many shops, gastronomic concepts and cultural attractions.

Small boutiques as well as flagship stores sell fashion and accessories, sports and outdoor articles, everyday necessities and food. There are also hairdressers and beauty salons as well as dining venues. From burger joints and take-away stands to haute cuisine restaurants.

Europaallee also has plenty to offer in the way of culture: Kulturhaus Kosmos is a cinema, stage, book salon and shop all in one. Guests will also find a bar and restaurant here.
